SUMMARY

I'm a creative marketer who combines visual storytelling with performance marketing. From filming and editing videos to running Meta Ads, building sales funnels, and managing e-commerce operations, I like being involved in the entire process.

My goal is simple: create work that looks good, performs well, and delivers real results.

EXPERIENCE

Founder, ISROA 2022 – Present

- Founded and developed an ecommerce business, building its digital presence and managing marketing activities across the customer journey, from advertising and initial engagement to sales and fulfillment.
- Paid Advertising & Campaign Strategy: Planned, launched, and optimized Meta Ads campaigns focused on customer acquisition, lead generation, messaging conversations, and ecommerce sales. Developed campaign objectives, audience strategies, advertising concepts, and promotional offers.
- Creative Strategy & Production: Produced product photography, promotional videos, advertising graphics, and conversion-focused copy. Developed and tested different creative angles, product demonstrations, and messaging approaches to improve advertising effectiveness.
- Performance Analysis & Optimization: Monitored CTR, CPC, CPL, conversion rates, and campaign performance to identify opportunities for improvement. Used performance insights and customer inquiries to refine advertising creatives, targeting, and budget allocation.
- Conversion Tracking & Retargeting: Used Meta Pixel and website conversion tracking to analyze customer actions, develop retargeting audiences, and evaluate performance throughout the acquisition funnel.
- Ecommerce & Conversion Optimization: Analyzed customer behavior and landing-page performance using analytics and Hotjar to identify conversion friction and improve the experience from advertisement to purchase.
- CRM & Marketing Operations: Worked with HubSpot, campaign reporting tools, and internal business workflows to organize customer inquiries, support sales follow-up, and connect marketing activity with customer acquisition outcomes.
- Business & Sales Operations: Managed product sourcing, pricing, promotions, inventory coordination, order processing, and customer communication, gaining direct insight into how marketing decisions affect sales and business operations.

Freelance Advertising Specialist, Project-based 2026 – Present

- Delivered project-based paid advertising, branding and content production for companies across real estate, manufacturing and service industries.
- Developed short-term marketing initiatives and campaign creative aligned with client promotional needs

Managing Partner, Upspirit Georgia 2020 – Present

- CRM & Sales Operations: Implemented Zoho CRM and Inventory systems to organize B2B customer management, centralize sales information, improve inventory visibility, and establish more structured workflows for the sales team.
- B2B Growth & Customer Retention: Introduced cashback incentives and a monthly sales tournament for B2B customers, with the top three participants earning annual credit allocations worth GEL 5,000+. The program attracted 38 participating customers from across Georgia and supported stronger customer engagement and repeat business.
- Regional Operations & Team Leadership: Managed inventory, coordinated distribution and sales activities, monitored team performance, and aligned marketing initiatives with commercial priorities across the Georgian market.
- Business Management & Leadership: Expanded beyond marketing into broader business management, including HR, team coordination, and operational decision-making. Following recognition from the company owners, was invited to become a Managing Partner, taking on wider responsibility for the company's overall performance.
- Career Progression: Promoted from Marketing Specialist to Regional Manager and subsequently Managing Partner, reflecting increasing responsibility for brand development, commercial growth, and company-wide operations.

Sales and Marketing Specialist, Upspirit Georgia 2017 – 2020

- Helped establish and develop the company's online presence in the Georgian market, introducing its product range to digital audiences.
- Developed marketing campaigns across Meta Ads, Google Ads, video advertising, and offline channels to support brand awareness and sales.
- Coordinated product photography, promotional content, and advertising materials to communicate product features and customer benefits.
- Supported B2B and B2C sales activities, developing an understanding of customer needs, buying behavior, and commercial marketing.
